Anleitung: Glasflaschen mit Tafelfolien-Etiketten

Instructions No. 1331

Difficulty: Beginner

The "Plopp" glass bottles are a real eye-catcher and are therefore ideal for homemade liqueurs, oils, bath additives and many other creative ideas. Whether as a decoration for kitchen & bathroom or as a nice souvenir or loving gift - so packed and decorated every content is perfectly staged and pleases the eye!

And it's that easy:

1. Wash the glass bottles well and let them dry. Stick a blackboard foil label of your choice in the middle.

2. Now cut out the colourful flowers of the felt border and decoratively attach them to the bottle with glue or tape Ribbonaround the label. A special accent can be set by sticking a decorative wooden flower in a matching colour on the bottle in selected places

3. Write on the blackboard foil pendants with the soapstone pencil. You can write on it who the gift is for, or place a love note or recipe for the contents.

4. One piece Satin ribbon cut out the label and attach the label to the bracket of the bottle with the tape. Tie a decorative bow from the Ribbon If you like, you can also stick a colourful flower on the tag.

5. Now carefully fill the bottle with contents and close it. Apply a flower cut out of the felt border to the white closure cork. Afterwards also the label with the soapstone pencil or Chalk marker label it.
