Felted fir trees

Instructions No. 2034

Difficulty: Beginner

Working time: 2 Hours

Create fluffy soft decorations with Knit felting wool. these felted Christmas trees with lights are a great decoration for the Christmas season. Placed on a chest of drawers or windowsill, the fir trees really make something special.

This is how it's done:

Cut off a little of two colours of fairy tale wool and place them on top of each other so that they meet in the middle and lie a little on top of each other. Use the felting needle to fix the wool on both sides of the special mat, creating a felted panel

Mix Mega Filzer with water according to instructions. Now brush the fairy tale wool with the mixed water (best in a small tub or on bubble wrap). Turn it over Felt sheet and apply the mixture also on the back

Now take the "Specialfelt mat" to hand. This will be used as a brush in the next step. With this you brush the plate from the middle to the bottom or top. Thus you receive a more beautiful color transition. Flatten it with Felt sheet your hands or use a dough roll

Rinse them Felt sheet out a little under clean water. In order to get the water out of it Felt , first wring the plate out. Then rub it Felt sheet over the burl foil. With a cloth you can additionally soak up the water on both sides. Afterwards the is blow-dried Knit felting wool

The finished mats are now attached to Adhesive tapethe Polystyrene cone glued. Protruding ends can be cut off with scissors.

Paint the wooden stands with Handicraft paint in Red brown and let the paint dry. Place the finished firs on top of the wooden stand. Finally, wrap the firs with a chain of lights.
