Full of energy and yet full of harmony - India is a vibrant subcontinent full of exotic colours and smells. The intense colours also play a major role in everyday life, which is expressed not least in the Indian colour festival "Holi". Whether consistently combined or as individual design elements in an otherwise rather restrained living room decoration - once you have been gripped by the passion for this world of colours, you will never get rid of it. These lanterns are designed with Straw silk paper, Leaf metal gemstones. They look especially beautiful when different colours are combined.
