Difficulty: Beginner

Working time: 1 hour

A successful invitation card gives any special occasion the perfect start. Whether you're planning a wedding or a relaxed get-together with friends, the theme "Greenery" is just what you need. With a few glamorous gold accents, you can create stylish invitations that leave a lasting impression on your guests. In this detailed guide, we will show you step by step how to create your own invitation cards.

Design the Cover

Start by designing the cover of the card. Choose the spot where you want to place the text "Invitation." Use a brush to apply a few brushstrokes of white acrylic paint there. It's important to apply the paint undiluted to prevent the paper from warping. Once the paint is dry, you can write on the cover with a suitable marker.

Decorate the Card

To give your card more vibrancy, use Washi Tape. With different colors and patterns, you can creatively decorate the card. You can apply the tape along the edges of the card or directly adjacent to the text. Vary the strips as you like or cut out special shapes to give the invitation a personal touch.

Finish the Invitation

Now it's time to create the invitation text. Cut a piece of paper to size, slightly smaller than the card itself. Write the invitation text on it and place it inside your card. To give the invitation stability and a decorative finish, cut a piece of jute twine, wrap it several times around the card, and tie it tightly. Thread a monstera leaf as a decorative element onto the twine and secure it with a loop. Your stylish invitation card is now complete!
