Little sweet bunny nest

Instructions No. 2786

Difficulty: Beginner

Working time: 2 Hours

Real bunnies and chicks do not fit into your home? Just make yourself a cute little bunny mini world! The little bunny hutch is a real eye-catcher on the shelf or windowsill and invites you to dream away.

Paint the note box and the wooden spatulas with white craft paint. While the paint is drying, cut a piece of wire mesh and glue it into the box with hot glue so that it later makes a window grille of the rabbit hutch.

Position the note box in front of you and glue a fence on the surface from wooden spatulas. Cut another piece of wire mesh, and from it make the wire box for the chicks. Fix this to the note box with hot glue, positioned directly against the miniature fence you made.

You can simply glue the miniature ladder to your new "bunny nest" with glue dots.

Now line the chick as well as the bunny hutch with wood wool and place the figures inside. To set everything off properly, arrange some wood wool with small decorative eggs on it next to the bunny nest, fill a small tub with some water.
