

Personalised candle with bracelet for christening or confirmation

Instructions No. 3382

Difficulty: Beginner

Working time: 1 hour

The spring brings many special occasions, like baptisms and confirmations. Creating a unique gift for these special events can be a meaningful gesture. With a few simple materials, you can create a beautiful candle with a personalized name bracelet. This gift will surely be one of a kind!

Create an Individual Baptism Candle with Name Bracelet

Bind the Bracelet and Place on the Candle

In the first step, you bind the bracelet. Take the leather band and make a knot in the middle, so the beads can't slide later. Now, string the letter beads to display a name or a lovely message. Once all beads are strung, close the bracelet with another knot.

Now, cut the bracelet to the desired length. Leave a little extra band at both ends so you can easily attach it to the candle. Make a small loop at each end and stick a pin through it.

With the pins, you can now attach the bracelet to the candle. The position can naturally be chosen individually.

Shape Candle Decorations from Wax

For the decoration of the candle, you can cut various elements from wax sheets. Use a scalpel, cookie cutters, or other forms to execute your design wishes. I chose strips and circles and made them with a scalpel and cutters.

Place the cut elements on the candle and press them firmly. Make sure that the candle looks nice and decorated even when the bracelet is removed, so there are no significant gaps left.
