Snowball Advent Calendar

Instructions No. 1037

Difficulty: Beginner

With only little effort, this winterly noble Advent Calendar can be made very quickly. The filigree glitter liners make the self-manufactured snowballs look festive

Decorate the homemade snowballs with a little fir green in a bowl on your sideboard or on the windowsill. In this way you can shorten the waiting time for Christmas.

And it's that easy:

Dab the decorative snow generously with a Bristle brushes on the halves of the Polystyrene balls and let everything dry well.

Trace the snow contours with the Glitter Liner and let it dry well. Put the halves together.
Cut out small pendants from the Kraft paper , punch them out and write the calendar numbers on them with the Glitter Liner.

Attach the tags with the Satin ribbon and the snowflakes to the Polystyrene ball, by fixing the Ribbon and the snowflakes with hot glue.
