Instructions No. 710

Difficulty: Advanced

Working time: 40 Minutes

These impressive Paper Balls are made of red and white Paper strips, with different border punches. They Pearl Stars are a beautiful combination.

Here's how it works

Halve the wide Paper strips , make a hole in the middle and 5 mm from the ends.
Thread the beads onto the wire and secure them with a crimp bead.
Thread the wire through the middle holes of four Paper strips
Fix the strips with a crimp bead and thread the ends onto the wire. Fix at the desired height with another crimp bead.
Finally thread another Pearl and a last crimp bead, bend an eyelet and close it with the crimp bead
Tip: For the eyelet, first bend the wire at a right angle and then roll it up with the jewellery pliers in the opposite direction. This way the eyelet becomes perfectly round.

Twist the two colors Embroidery twist together and hang the paper balls with them.

Variant 1:
Punch the wide stripes in the middle with the Craft Punch "Stripes" and thread the contrasting coloured narrow Paper strips through.

Variant 2:
Design the width of Paper strips from both sides with the border punch, stick contrast colored wide strips behind it.

Variant 3:
Weave narrow white stripes around wide stripes of variant 1 and glue them.

This idea is timelessly beautiful!
