2. Naturally coat the bottle vase:

The bottle vase becomes a rustic eye-catcher when you wrap it with jute cord. This not only gives your project only a natural touch, but also creates a harmonious connection between the individual elements.

3. Perfect length of the willow catkins:

Take a side cutter and cut the willow catkins to the desired length. This will give your arrangement a balanced structure and the willow catkins will fit perfectly into the overall picture.

4. Arrangement on the oak rind board:

Place the bottle vase and the freshly painted wooden bunnies on the oak plank. This serves as an elegant base for your spring ensemble.
